DIRECTIONS FROM A38 WESTBOUND

Exit the A38 signposted, Plymouth Argyle, Tavistock, Hospital and Airport. Take the 5th exit on the roundabout and head towards the airport and hospital. Follow the main road and approximately half way down this road you will see the Future Inn on the right hand side, carry on to the round about ahead and be in the right hand lane. Take the 3rd exit and again head towards the signs directing you to the hospital. Pass the hospital which will be on your right hand side and turn right at the next set of traffic lights which is signposted Tamar Science Park. Take the first left (Davy Road) pass over the speed humps and filter to the left towards the end of the road. Branch off to the left and the entrance to the gravelled car park is directly on your right hand side.

DIRECTION FROM A38 EASTBOUND

After passing over the Tamar Bridge stay on the dual carriage way for approximately 3 miles, exit the dual carriageway when you see the signs for the Hospital and the airport. Take the slip road and then the 2nd exit on the roundabout which will make you head towards the hospital, get in the right hand lane in preparation for the 3rd exit at the roundabout ahead.

Take the 3rd exit and again head towards the signs directing you to the hospital. Pass the hospital which will be on your right hand side and turn right at the next set of traffic lights which is signposted Tamar Science Park. Take the first left (Davy Road) pass over the speed humps and filter to the left towards the end of the road. Branch off to the left and the entrance to the gravelled car park is directly on your right hand side.
